

Join us for a day of learning, and collaboration. ABAQUS and IBM invite you to a free technology seminar to hear from industry peers about how to apply the latest simulation technology and methods to accelerate and improve product development.

Dr Joop Nagtegaal from ABAQUS Inc, Rhode Island, one of the world's leading developers of CAE Technology, will talk about the latest capabilities and future strategies of ABAQUS and SIMULIA.

With over 30 years of industry experience, Joop has made major contributions to the development of numerical engineering methods.
